

Fabulous February 2011

By Kavita Agrawal

Love is the air as February is fast approaching. We've got a cross-generational conflict between father and son, a fun love story and a woman's quest to find true love with her seven husbands.

Here is a list of movies which make it to our list for a "dekho" with good company!

Patiala House

Directed by Nikhil Advani, this multi-starrer has Akshay Kumar, Anushka Sharma, Dimple Kapadia, Rishi Kapoor and Prem Chopra as the main performers. With Cricket as the backdrop, this sports drama film is set entirely in the UK. Patiala House is about British-Indian identity and the cross-generational conflict between father and son. Music by Shankar-Ehsaan-Loy is already making waves. It is produced by noneother than Akshay Kumar's "Hari Om Productions".

7 Khoon Maaf

This black comedy-thriller directed by Vishal Bhardwaj stars Priyanka Chopra in the lead role.

It is based on Ruskin Bond's book Susanna's Seven Husbands. The seven men who will be seen in the leading roles are John Abraham, Nasseruddin Shah, Irfan Khan, Vivaan Shah (Nasseruddin Shah's son), Neil Nitin Mukesh, Annu Kapoor and a Russian actor Aleksandr Dyachenko. This will be second time that Priyanka will be seen in a negative role after her award winning performance in Aitraaz.

Tanu Weds Manu

This is a fun rom-com directed by Aanand Rai. It has Kangana Ranaut as the outspoken, headstrong girl from Kanpur and R.Madhavan as the calm, collected doctor from London in search of a bride. Add Jimmy Shergil into the equation and voila one has an interesting love triangle. Watch out for this whacky comedy!
