

Ostentatio

By: Kavita Agrawal

Love stories, mad comedies, over-the-top teen romcoms, super heroes all descend upon us this festive season making it an Ostentatious October. Here is a look at some flicks which will be lighting up the theaters near you and hopefully set the box office ringing.

7th October, 2011

Love Breakups Zindagi

Made under the banner of Born Free Entertainment it stars the production house owners themselves – Zayed Khan and Dia Mirza in the lead. Music by Samil-Sulaiman proves to be melodious and lyrics by Javed Akhtar are memorable. It promises to explore the meaning of Love, Breakups and "Zindagi" in current times in a fun youthful manner.

Rascals

How can any festive season be complete without its share of a full on brainless comedy flick by David Dhawan? Well, watch out for the "Rascals" of Bollywood - Ajay Devgn and Sanjay Dutt this Dusherra with Kangana Ranaut and Lisa Hayden lighting up the screen. Foot tapping music is provided by Vishal-Shekar.

Ranaut and Lisa Hayden lighting up the screen. Foot tapping music is provided by Vishal-Shekar.

us October

14th October, 2011

Mujhse Fraandship Karoge

Yash Raj Youth division "Y Films" comes out with its second film based on high school romances and relationships in the world obsessed by social networking sites. Catch this teen drama unfold this festive season! This film will mark the debut of Indian folk rocker Raghu Dixit in Bollywood.

26th October, 2011

Ra.One

This year's most awaited release, the onset of India's new superhero G.One played by none other than Shahrukh Khan. The film also stars Kareena Kapoor, Arjun Rampal, Shahana Gosawami. Music by Vishal -Sherkar featuring Akon and Ben E. King is already a hit. This Diwali watch the Ra.One [aka "Raavan"] and G.One [aka GoodOne/ "Jeevan"] battle it out in the theater next to you with great special effects.

28th October, 2011
Tell me O Kkhuda

Hema Malini is all set to re-launch her daughter Esha Deol with Tell Me O Kkhuda. Based on the successful Hollywood flick Mamma Mia, it traces the story of a girl trying to find her father played by Rishi Kapoor, Vinod Khanna and Dharmendra. This is the first time that the father-daughter duo will share screen space. Music is by Pritam.